Pledge to Care for Bears

I pledge to care for bears and other wildlife in the years to come and to educate my parents and friends about bears after having participated in the "Dare to Care for Bears" programme.

Bears are very talented animals with a keen sense of smell, that is seven times more powerful than that of dogs; with an excellent memory that helps them return to a good food location even year after year. But bears are in danger from humans. This packet contains information how many species of bears are there in India! where they are found! How do they look like! What do they eat? and its behaviour.
